God could not be everywhere and therefore he made mothers.

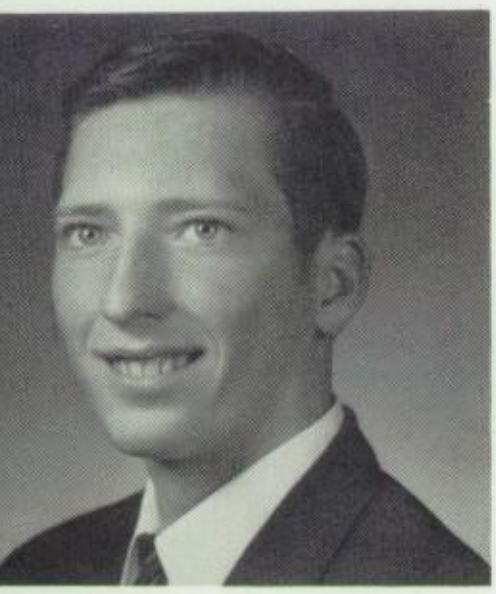
KATHIE JOHNSON

I never think of the future. It comes soon enough.

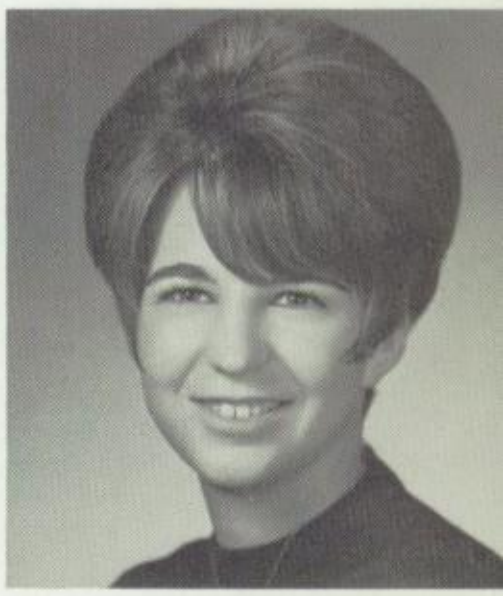


GARY BROCHT

Remember the bannana; when it left the bunch it got skinned.

CINDY SAVAGE

The heart has eyes that the heart knows nothing of.

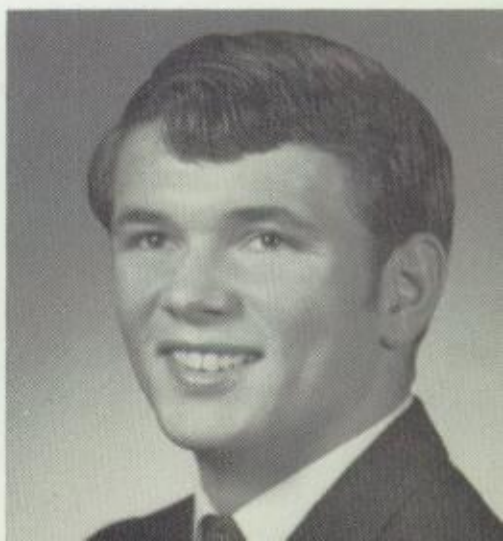


MARILYN HOEKWATER

Her very frowns are fairer far than smiles of other maidens are.

HOWARD McCRIMMON

"It ain't the things you don't know what gets you in trouble; it's the things you know for sure what ain't so."



DAN MANEKE

School is a nightmare, but I manage to sleep through it.

VICKIE PATTERSON

Take care to get what you like, or you will end by liking what you get.

LAVINA ALBERTS

BARB NEVINS

Never too old to learn.

GARRY KEMP

I often quote myself. It adds spice to my conversation.

JACK PIFER

Work fasinates me. I can sit and look at it for hours.

SUE MOES

Easy to please--hard to convince.

SALLY HARDING

When you're average, you're as close to the top as you are to the bottom.

REGGIE HULLIBURGER

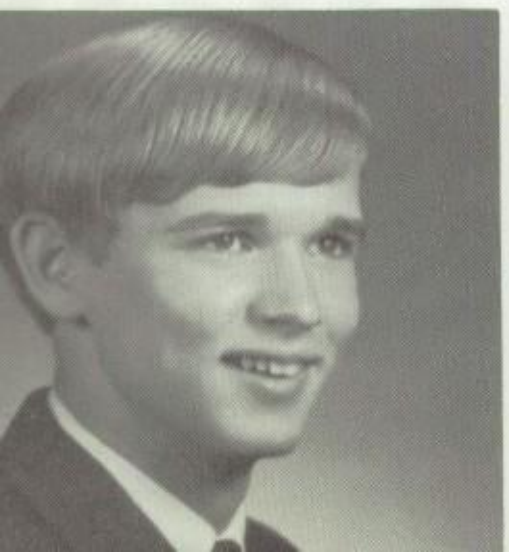
If you can waste an afternoon profitably, you have learned how to live.

SHIRLEY SHERMAN

Keep quiet and people will think you a philosopher.

GEORGIA BUDD

Looks like an angel, acts like one too, but one can never tell what angels may do.



LEORA FEWLESS

It's nice to be important but it's more important to be nice.

RON KOGLER

Learn from the mistakes of others; you can't live long enough to make them all yourself.

GREG MARTINSON

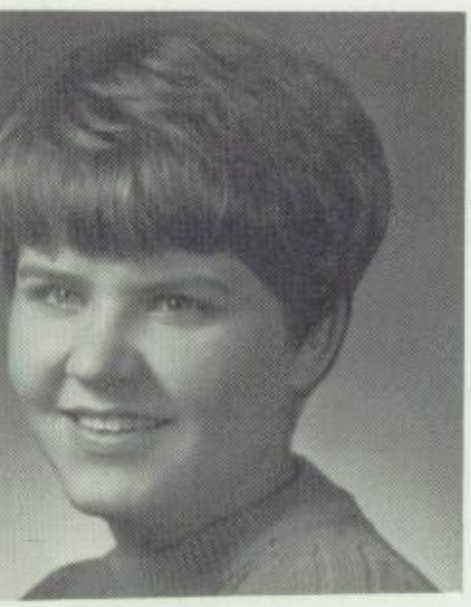
There is one advantage in poor handwriting; it covers up a lot of mistakes in spelling.

SALLY MEYER

Twenty years ago the girls never thought of doing things they do nowadays. That's why they didn't do them.

KATHY VOKES

Kindness is something you can't give away. It always comes back.



JULIE BERRY

Always do right. This will gratify some people and astonish the rest.

DAVE JONSON

You can always spot a well informed man. His views are the same as yours.

STEVE WARREN

Progress involves risk--you can't steal second and keep your foot on first.

IN MEMORIAM

RUSSELL EDWARDS

Always we remember--A cheerful comrade--a good friend.

Pictured above are the remaining eight of the top ten. Receiving their honors are: Susan Moes, Kathy Vokes, Kathie Johnson, Lavina Alberts, Shirley Sherman, Sue Luse, Sally Meyer, and Vickie Patterson.

1968 CLASS HISTORY

The 1968 Graduating Class entered 7th grade in 1962. We were greeted by Mrs. Hazen, who sponsored the 36 member class. The first homecoming float was "The Jetson's". In the spring of '63, our Michigan Government Class took a trip to the capitol. Our first year of junior high school ended with the class being $3.98 in the red.

In 1963, our class shrunk to 30 members. Our class sponsor was Mr. Soper.

Starting high school with 54 members, our class was led by Mr. McCrimmon and Mr. Johnson. Kathie Johnson was elected president; Vickie Patterson, vice-president; Georgia Budd, secretary; and Kathy Vokes, treasurer. Our homecoming candidate was Georgia Budd, escorted by Rick Mosher. Our float entitled "Surrey with the Fringe on Top", won second place. Our prom candidate, Kathy Vokes, was chosen princess.

President Steve Warren and his command, consisting of vice-president, Greg Martinson; secretary, Leora Fewless; and treasurer, Mike Outman, led the sophomore class of 49 students. Marilyn Hoekwater, homecoming candidate, was elected queen and was escorted by Mike Outman. The float "Robinson Crusoe" failed to win any honors. Mr. Rippee and Mr. Calder, our sponsors that year, helped with the ice-cream social. Jerry Lee was guest of honor on a Naval cruise and Susan Luse received an Army Medical Award. Mary Lou Krchmar, prom candidate, was elected princess.

Our junior class sponsors were Miss Miller and Mrs. Johnson. The 46 members of the class were governed by president Marilyn Hoekwater; vice-president, Richard Mosher; secretary, Yvonne Richardson; and treasurer, David Rockafellow. The Constitutional Convention for Student Council convened during our junior year. Representatives from the class were Mary Lou Krchmar, Marilyn Hoekwater, Rick Mosher, and Garry Kemp. The money-making project for the year was a chicken supper. The homecoming candidate was Yvonne Richardson and Rick Mosher was her escort. The float, "Venice", won first place. Susan Luse and Kate Bertal placed first and second, respectively, in the District and Regional Extemporaneous Speaking Contest. The prom queen candidates were Joyce Gingrich and Diane Fewless.

The senior year started with 43 members. Mrs. Morgan, Miss Goetsch, and Mr. Lithen were class sponsors. Dave Rockafellow was elected president; Peg Blackledge, vice-president; secretary, Yvonne Richardson; and treasurer, Mike Outman. Our homecoming float, "Fairyland", won first place for beauty. Our candidate was Lavina Alberts who was escorted by Reggie Hulliberger. Four members of the senior class were elected Student Council officers. They were Garry Kemp, president; Vickie Patterson, vice-president; secretary, Marilyn Hoekwater; and Mary Lou Krchmar, treasurer. Class representatives were Kate Bertal and Steve Warren. Members of our class that have received special recognition this year are as follows: Kate Bertal, valedictorian and D.A.R. Good Citizen; Leora Fewless, salutatorian and Homemaker of Tomorrow; George McCrimmon, All Conference offensive tackle and defensive linebacker; Dave Rockafellow, All Conference offensive halfback; Mike Outman, All Conference defensive end; Steve Warren, captain of basketball team and on the All Conference squad; Yvonne Richardson, editor of the MHS ECHOES; and Shirley Sherman and Garry Kemp, co-editors of the EAGLETON. The money-maker of the year was the slave-sale. The prom theme was "Moonlight and Roses" and our candidates were Sue Mitchell and Peg Blackledge. Dress-up day was May 2 and slop day was May 3. The senior trip was June 3 when we traveled to Mackinaw Island. Baccalaureate was held on June 2 at two-thirty in the high school gymnasium. And we, the 1968 graduates of MHS, received our diplomas at Commencement exercises at 8:00 on June 7.
